

"I have found Jeff Steinberg to be an excellent example of God's Love and compassion. Jeff's testimony is heart-stirring and heart-searching. He is easy to work with and very effective. I recommend him for ministry."

Rev. William Ralph Painter, Senior Pastor
First Assembly of God, Goldsboro, NC

"Jeff Steinberg's vibrant personality, his deep Faith in The Lord and his ability to use every ounce of what God has given him to Minister and to Praise The Lord are a challenge and an encouragement to everyone who hears his message. God has done very unusual things to bring Jeff to where he is today, and his presentation reminds us that God is still at work today - in a day by day way bringing us steadily toward Himself if we only respond. We recommend Jeff's Ministry because we know lives will be changed through his sharing with others."

David H. Northrup, Executive Director
Alton Bay Christian Conference Center, Alton Bay, NH

"Jeff Steinberg has been a friend for decades. He has recorded and shared many of my songs and has made them live for thousands of people in hundreds of places like nobody else could. I've watched Jeff start from scratch a number of times with a new audience, then one hour later, they were putty in his "hand" (hook). God uses him to shake strong mind-sets, to move, motivate and inspire people."

Gordon Jensen, Singer/Composer/Recording Artist
Nashville, TN

"I write to affirm the gifts and commend Jeff Steinberg...one of the most unique witnesses I've known. He is an excellent musician, add to that a powerful testimony of the overcoming goodness of God and you have a combination that is unbeatable."

Dr. Maxie Dunnam, Chancellor
Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, KY

"SINCE MEETING JEFF STEINBERG IN THE 70's he has Challenged, Inspired, Enabled and Empowered people of all ages, races, creeds in every city where I have pastored. While times and music genre's within and without the church have dramatically changed, Jeff's LIFE, PERSONA, MUSIC and message that everyone is "A Masterpiece in Progress" is more relevant today than ever before."

Rev. Jon Gray, Former Senior Pastor
Covenant Fellowship, A Church of the Nazarene
Mount Juliet, TN.

"What a delight to have you make an appearance at our recent, sold out national conference. Your message, through music, humor and testimony can embellish & heighten any youth, singles, couples or family programs. Thanks...Jeff, for wonderfully demonstrating how the power of The Holy Spirit can make anyone a Masterpiece."

I look forward to having you back...in the future."

John Ashmen, Director of Member Services,
Christian Camp & Conference Association / USA, Colorado Springs, CO

"Jeff Steinberg teaches how to make it on grit, gumption, God and an indomitable will to overcome severe physical limitations."

Zig Ziglar, Motivational Teacher / Author

"Jeff Steinberg has a unique ability to communicate with audiences of any age group. Because of his stature, children relate to him and listen with rapt attention when he talks about problems of life. Adults are captivated by his tenacity to function despite perceived disabilities...Jeff is able to shock people out of their self-pity and helps them to live productive lives. His singing abilities only add to an event filled with humor, self examination and spiritual food. I dare you to experience Jeff Steinberg and his unique Ministry. You will never be the same again."

Duane Nicholson, Tenor
Dave, Duane & Neil, Dillsburg, PA
"A Dependable Name in Sacred Music Since 1955"

"I highly recommend Jeff Steinberg to any Church that wants to be blessed. His is a Ministry that truly touches the hearts of everyone. One minute you're crying, and the next minute you're falling out of your seat laughing. One thing is sure, have Jeff Steinberg, and you will be challenged as never before to give God your all."

Rev. Mark Gill, Pastor
Freetrade Church of God, Carthage, MS

"On behalf of the students and staff at Mazie Gable Elementary School I thank you for the inspirational message you shared at the assembly program on September 16, 2002. Each and everyone in attendance listened intently to your message through song, humor, and powerful words. Today more than ever before children need words of hope and encouragement that help them understand they CAN BE, MUST BE, and SHALL BE successful in what lies ahead..."

Mrs. Susan B. Dunham, Principal
Mazie Gable Elementary School, Red Lion, PA

Jeff Steinberg wants everyone to know that we can be "...more than conquerors..." because he IS one. He is a true overcomer!

Born with no arms or hands and deformed legs, he has faced physical & personal challenges that would cause many folks to quit. Jeff believes that "...God makes the Impossible - Probable!" He lives it everyday - he proclaims it everywhere he goes, "A handicap is anything that keeps me from being or becoming all God designed for me to be!" He will help you realize for yourself that "You're a Masterpiece In Progress!"

Ellen Steinberg, Seminar Speaker and teacher brings a heart for hurting women who have suffered abuse including abuse in the name of religion, especially those who have been through the pain of divorce or the death of a family member. She speaks directly to the needs of folks who are hurting, as well as the concerns of single parent families with deep conviction and compassion.

A vital part of this very special Ministry, Ellen shares a message of renewed faith, prayer and trust in The Lord; and offers practical guidance on how The Church can be effective in these most important areas of Ministry.

Experience this very special Ministry of hope and encouragement for your next Church Service, Rally Day, Renewal Series, Banquet / Concert or special event. Visit www.TinyGIANT.com, or call (901)754-JEFF or call Larry Stegner at (901)230-JEFF to schedule The JEFF STEINBERG MINISTRY TEAM, and allow The Lord to jump-start your Fellowship with a spiritual charge that will keep you going for a long, long time.

BACKGROUND BIO

JEFF STEINBERG IS A MASTERPIECE IN PROGRESS! But to see him, he looks like anything BUT a masterpiece. Born in Philadelphia, August 18, 1951, JEFFREY DAVID STEINBERG started life without arms or hands, and with two malformed legs. Though shortchanged on the physical end, he was gifted with an indomitable spirit and a dynamic personality. Initially not expected to live, he spent most of his early life in hospitals, including Shriners' Hospital for Children, in Philadelphia, PA. At the Shriner's Hospital he underwent major orthopedic surgery, he learned to walk with a leg brace, and was fitted with his first artificial arm. He lived at home with his family less than one year before being placed in The Good Shepherd Home for the Physically Handicapped in Allentown, Pennsylvania, in 1960, where he lived until he was 19 years old.

Through the love of a local couple in the area, JEFF, a young Jewish boy met and received Jesus as his Messiah and learned for the first time what it meant to have a family. They taught him the truth that would become the foundation of his life: "I am fearfully and wonderfully made." (Psalm 139:14).

JEFF STEINBERG IS A MASTERPIECE IN PROGRESS, AND HE WANTS YOU TO KNOW IT! He sees his disabilities as assets, not liabilities. Jeff is a singer, Evangelist and a humorist. "For 30 years he has crisscrossed the globe delivering his very special message that that a real handicap is "...anything that keeps me from being or becoming all that God created me to be." In his distinctive style, using humor and song, he shows us that each person each person is wonderfully created in "God's unique design," with potential they never even dreamed possible.

He has shared his message with audiences around the country, performing for television, businesses, schools, churches, and hospitals. Jeff was co-host for a Television Special, called "The Best You Can Be...The Handicapped Hall of Fame" along with disability rights advocate, Mary Nemec Doremus. He has performed on "The Variety Club Telethon" with host Monte Hall, both in the US and CANADA; he has appeared on "The National Easter Seal Telethon" with host Pat Boone, from Hollywood, California for seven years; he was Co-host for the "Memphis Easter Seal Telethon" for four years and the first annual "Lehigh Valley Easter Seal Telethon" in 1990. Jeff Steinberg has helped to raise more than $250,000.00 to help people with disabilities.

Especially memorable was performing at a rally with Mother Teresa of Calcutta during her 1989 U.S. visit. In addition to traveling throughout the United States, Jeff has performed in Germany, Canada, and Barbados. Jeff Steinberg has traveled more than two million miles over the last 29 years sharing his unique message.

In 1987 Jeff Steinberg was inducted into The Good Shepherd Hall of Fame For People with Disabilities for his achievements in the field of music, for his advocacy on behalf of the physically challenged, and for carrying the message that everyone is a Masterpiece in Progress.

ELLEN STEINBERG, WIFE, MOTHER, TEACHER & SEMINAR SPEAKER BRINGS A HEART FOR HURTING WOMEN who have suffered abuse, the pain of divorce, financial distress, the trauma of physical disabilities, even the loss of a family member. She speaks to the needs of folks who are hurting, along with the concerns of single parent families. Ellen also speaks on the subject of Prayer. "I believe that a daily Prayer relationship with God is not easy and cannot be reduced to a formula for success." An important part of this very special Ministry, she teaches a renewed message of faith, prayer, trust in The Lord and how The Church can be effective in these contemporary areas of Ministry.

Ellen Steinberg is a requested speaker for Conferences on Prayer, Women's Meetings and Retreats.

Jeff Steinberg has recorded several Cassettes & CD's projects including, "Masterpiece in Progress," "Tiny Giant" and his Video "Live In Concert, A Celebration - 25 Years" all on his own GlovePRINTS label. His autobiography, Masterpiece In Progress, now in the fourth printing, is published and distributed worldwide by New Leaf Press.

THE STEINBERG MINISTRY TEAM share a message of hope, humor & encouragement, inspiration and a unique challenge: "You're a Masterpiece In Progress." Come and meet this remarkable couple, and plan to bring a friend! You'll laugh, you'll cry, you'll leave with an "I can do all things..." attitude.

A Steinberg Service is the most fun you can have and still be in Church!
